TEACHER OF MUSIC

VALUED, CHALLENGED, INSPIRED

“WE OFFER OUR BEST TO EVERYONE AND EXPECT THE AMAZING BECAUSE WE BELIEVE IN THE INNATE POTENTIAL OF ALL PEOPLE”

WELCOME

Dear Applicant

I am delighted that you are interested in applying to be the Teacher of Music at Emmanuel College.

We truly believe that Emmanuel College is an exciting and creative place to study as a student and work as a teacher. We are looking for a candidate who believes that music is an inspiring, valuable arts subject, to be taught with creativity, expert pedagogy and outstanding musicianship.

At Emmanuel, we are proud of our music and arts curriculum, which is underpinned by a commitment to constant engagement in music performance and composition alongside experiencing music of different genres and cultures. As a teacher of music at Emmanuel, you would join a department committed to arts education, cognisant of the need to ensure all students receive high-quality teaching. All members of the department are valued and supported, strength of practice is celebrated as well as opportunities cultivated to furnish the development of the individual. The department comprises a highly motivated and skilled group of individuals who work hard to deliver exceptional provision. Each member of the team is highly valued, in the belief that collaboration is key to serving both our students and each teacher's professional development.

Emmanuel College is a truly exceptional school, with excellent leadership, teaching and support for our students. As a Christian-ethos school of character for the whole community, everyone is welcome whatever their educational background and ability, faith position, social or ethnic background. Student behaviour is excellent and we put a great deal of emphasis on ensuring that staff can work in an environment where students want to learn. These high standards are maintained because of a relentless commitment to expectations and routines and so each teacher should be enthusiastic about upholding these. We are committed to the holistic development of young people: outstanding teaching goes hand in hand with opportunities for character development.

As Principal, I am looking for teachers who are passionate about their subject, have expert subject knowledge and care deeply about securing the best life chances for the young people in our care. I am also interested in learning about you as a person and what you might offer the College beyond the music classroom. We firmly believe that for students to gain the most from school they should be able to experience a wide range of co-curricular offerings and your perspective on this would be most useful.

We believe that we are an outstanding school, not because of any external judgement, but because we have a deep and abiding commitment to do the best we can for the students, teachers and leaders in our care. We want our College to be a place where staff come to work excited about the lessons they are going to teach and looking forward to strengthening the relationships they have with colleagues as well as students.

If what you have read above excites you and aligns with your personal values, experience and ambitions, then you are probably the right person for this role and you will love working here.

MISSION

CHARACTER EDUCATION

We build good character. We learn about good character, why it matters and how to develop it.

CURRICULUM EXCELLENCE

We are determined to achieve a personal best. We provide a broad ambitious curriculum that ensures excellent student learning, progress and future destinations.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

We serve with gratitude. We use our gifts to benefit the community and the environment.

OUR CORE VIRTUES

ALL PEOPLE ARE INFINITELY
PRECIOUS, MORALLY RESPONSIBLE AND GIFTED FOR A PURPOSE”

SUPPORTING STUDENTS AND STAFF TO BECOME THE PERSON THEY HAVE THE POTENTIAL TO BE”

SUPPORT

We recognise that staff are our most important resource: they will have the biggest impact on the quality of education that our students receive. The Emmanuel staff body is an impressive group: well qualified, highly motivated and eminently hardworking. Colleagues are keen to continue developing their subject knowledge, pedagogical sophistication and classroom practice and the College is committed to doing all it can to support them in these endeavours.

The professional development of staff is a priority for us. All colleagues have access to a well-structured and high-quality CPL programme suited to their stage in their teaching journey and all teachers have the chance to pursue an NPQ through a national provider. Each member of staff has a line manager who is deeply interested in their wellbeing as well as their performance.

In addition to the normal remuneration package that includes a contributory pension scheme, company sick pay and maternity/paternity leave, Emmanuel staff enjoy a number of additional benefits. These include a daily lunch allowance, free use of our fitness suite, parking on the College grounds, as well as access to Care First, a free, independent and confidential resource available to employees that can help with all manner of needs.

There is a sense of real community amongst the Emmanuel staff body. Various social events sit alongside the long tradition of colleagues getting together after the College day to play football or netball – new players always hugely welcome!

THE DEPARTMENT

The Creative Arts department comprises a large staff team teaching art, drama, graphics, LAMDA and music led by the Creative Arts and Events Lead. In addition, we are privileged to work with an experienced team of self-employed instrumental teachers who alongside our LAMDA teachers provide instrumental lessons and speech and drama lessons for almost a third of the student body. We are well equipped with two music classrooms with Sibelius suites and keyboards, two drama studios, three art classrooms and an auditorium space, which will be developed into a theatre. The department has established a firm tradition of expert classroom teaching as well as a well-respected and varied co-curricular and events programme that support student leadership and character development. We are supported by a forward-thinking senior team who value the arts and the opportunities for student leadership and character education.

All students in year 7 to 9 receive a curriculum music and art lesson each week and this year we are adding drama to that provision. The Music department assesses students throughout each term, with the assessments covering performance, composition and listening and appraising. We offer a varied and knowledge-rich curriculum including instrumental and vocal music, music for stage and screen, popular genre music and fusion music. We offer GCSE and A-Level courses in Art, Graphic Communication, Music and Drama and are hoping to implement BTEC qualifications also. The Creative Arts Lead has built on the work of previous heads of department to take the arts to a new level at Emmanuel College. Not only is there a breadth of participation, but the ambitious nature of the curriculum, the events repertoire and the quality reached by our students are remarkable for a comprehensive school. This has been achieved as the result of a partnership between the arts teaching staff, Emmanuel colleagues and a large team of expert peripatetic tutors who share a vision for music and the arts' potential to unlock the human soul and enrich both individuals and the whole community.

The arts form an important part of each day at Emmanuel College in our curriculum lessons, co-curricular groups, individual instrumental and LAMDA lessons and celebration assemblies. Music and Drama are an integral part of our events programme including our annual Carol Service and Presentation Evening that take place in the inspiring Hall One at Sage Gateshead. Each year the Creative Arts department stages a breath-taking whole college production; these have included Les Miserables in 2019, the Greek tragedy Antigone in 2020, The Sound of Music in 2022 and this year's Treasure Island. We also stage Christmas and Gala concerts each year to showcase the work of our musicians and ensembles. As a team we fully involve ourselves in these events and our music ensembles include Performance Choir and One Voice Choir, Jazz Band, Orchestra, Senior String Ensemble, Stage Door Drama Club, Art Clubs and LAMDA Public Speaking groups. We welcome musicians who thrive on working with ensembles, whether that be as a musical director for our production, choir leader or conducting or playing in our orchestra or jazz band.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The Emmanuel College curriculum is designed to engage all students, no matter their background, in a broad and balanced range of subjects. Highly effective teaching and learning principles share our practice and are embedded within every classroom.

Our curriculum enables students to:

1. acquire the knowledge and cultural capital they need to succeed in life;
2. cultivate strong character and the intellectual discipline to apply their learnt knowledge correctly.

Emmanuel College is committed, for all students, to:

1. have access to an ambitious, coherent, knowledge-rich curriculum that allows all students to acquire and apply knowledge;
2. experience a straightforward delivery of said curriculum, supported by effective sequencing of topics with long-term learning at its core;
3. engage in reliable assessments that accurately gauge students' progress through the curriculum and further embed knowledge.

THE PERSON

The successful candidate will be a highly-skilled musician ready to deliver an outstanding curriculum and co-curricular arts provision at Emmanuel College. You will be able to teach at Key Stages 3, 4 and potentially Key Stage 5 and have a willingness to immerse yourself in our wide range of co-curricular music and creative arts events. We welcome applications from teachers with music industry experience who are motivating, adaptable and imaginative and keen to join a team that is committed to achieving academic excellence in their teaching of music to students of a wide ability range between the ages of 11 and 18.

Your motivation as a teacher will be the positive care and development of young lives and you will view children as individuals, gifted with unique abilities and potential regardless of background, ability or behaviour. A high level of commitment to achieving academic excellence compounded by proficient subject pedagogy and high standards of delivery is a prerequisite for this post. You will have the highest expectations of students, refusing to believe that socio-economic deprivation or special educational needs should act as a barrier to success, and possessing a natural authority in the classroom. You will aspire to be an outstanding teacher, combining a mastery of your subject with strong relationships with young people, and having a confident grasp of the craft of the classroom.

There is no requirement that individual teachers should be Christians, but it is essential however that all staff understand and enthusiastically support our mission, ethos and values. There is a remarkable unity of purpose within the current staff team as individuals unite around our core beliefs that people are infinitely precious, gifted for a purpose and morally responsible. A desire to work with the most deprived in our communities and those with low academic starting points, as well as with the most able and those from more privileged backgrounds, is an essential prerequisite.

If, prior to submitting your application, you wish to visit Emmanuel College to find out more about the role and the College, then you would be most welcome.
