DOUBLE REED (Self Employed Visiting Music Teacher)

Required from September 2024

A unique self-employment opportunity has arisen for a well-qualified and enthusiastic oboe and bassoon teacher to teach students of our Music department. The successful candidate will be expected to play a full role in developing the number and quality of young double reed players across our Junior and Senior Schools.

The position is a self-employed contract (as is common in most independent schools), in which the visiting music teacher will be responsible for setting their lesson fee and timetabling their own lessons. The successful candidate will have the opportunity to continue the teaching of our current oboe students, as well as promoting/growing their teaching via the Open Instrumental Evening on Wednesday 12th June 2024, and via the school website. Also, we hope the visiting music teacher will deliver a 10-week trial scheme, financed by the school, from September 2024.

Hours: Up to 2 hours teaching per week (over one day per week). Specific day to be agreed with the successful candidate.

Self-employment terms of engagement: Please refer to the information pack for more details.

RGS is proud to be an equal opportunities employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment regardless of neurodivergence, age, disability, sex, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief and marriage and civil partnerships. Whilst all applications are considered on merit, we would particularly welcome applications from black and minority ethnic candidates who are currently under-represented in our staff community. We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and we expect all staff to share this commitment. All posts are subject to pre-interview referencing, internet searches and pre-employment checks including an enhanced DBS check with children's barred list check.
